FILM FANS SEE "BIGGEST" STAR

"Fatty" Arbuckle Visits Loew's Theaters During Brief Stay Here.

Genial "Fatty" Arbuckle, one of the "biggest" stars of filmdom, dropped into the city last night to meet a few thousand friends and admirers, after signing a three-year $1,000,000-per-year contract with Adolph Zukor, of Paramount Pictures, earlier in the day.

"Fatty" was introduced to an audience of 3,000 film-viewers in the Palace Theater by Manager Lawrence Beaudry, during the early evening exhibition. It was here that he made a short speech that will put him down in the minds of those present as a humorist in words as well as deeds.

"I'm East and West is West," he started solemnly, "but dry throats will find both of these sections too much the same after July 1." And he looked on the audience with the air of a judge delivering an opinion of utmost import.

From the Palace, Arbuckle went to the Columbia, where he met 3,000 more holiday celebrators, packing the house. He was introduced by Manager Fred Klein.

The most striking thing about his visit to this theater was his exit. He was heading for a purring taxi, when a little girl rushed up to him. "Here's my Fatty," she yelled, and insisted on an introduction. The comedian met her, shook hands with her and told her a secret which she refused to divulge even to her waiting mother.

Mr. Arbuckle was escorted to the train by a delegation, among which were Oscar Morgan, manager of the Paramount Exchange here, Thomas and Mrs. Moore, L. Monte Bell and George Preston Marshall.

He hopped on the outgoing train for New Orleans, where he will stop on his way to the coast.

Owing to the enthusiasm exhibited at his introductions, which took place only at the Loew Theaters, the management of these houses have made arrangements to secure as soon as possible an engagement of his latest feature film entitled "Love."

WAR WORKER WANTS HER PROPERTY BACK

Mrs. Marcella Clark Claims Husband Threatened Her.

Mrs. Marcella Clark, a war worker and wife of Lieut. Col. Alfred E. Clark, who is attached to the office of the Judge-Advocate General of the army, filed a petition yesterday in the District Supreme Court to make void a contract she signed in Portland, Ore., in July, 1914, whereby she turned over her property to her husband.

On December 13, 1918, Mrs. Clark filed suit for maintenance against her husband.

The contract, she alleges, was signed under a threat that if she refused she would be incarcerated as an insane person. She now asks the District Supreme Court to set aside the contract on the ground that her signature was obtained by fraud.

BAPTISTS TO INSTALL PASTOR NEXT WEEK

Ceremony Will Mark 117th Anniversary of Church.

Coincident with the celebration of the 117th anniversary of its foundation and the 100th anniversary of the inauguration of its Sunday school, the congregation of First Baptist Church will hold installation services for its new pastor, Rev. Dr. Henry Allan Tupper, on Friday, March 7, and Sunday, March 9.

Former pastors as well as representatives from other denominations will make addresses. Musical features will be attractive and an informal reception will be held.

NAMES PALMER FOR CABINET

President Selects Alien Property Custodian as New Attorney General.

President Wilson yesterday nominated A. Mitchell Palmer, present alien property custodian, as Attorney General, succeeding Thomas W. Gregory, whose resignation takes effect March 4.

Palmer, whose home is at Stroudsburg, Pa., has been prominent in Democratic politics for many years. During the war in his work as alien property custodian, Palmer took over enemy properties in the United States amounting to approximately $700,000,000 and administered 32,000 trusts. Palmer has been a member of the Democratic National Committee from Pennsylvania since 1912, having defeated Col. James M. Guffey in a bitter fight in that State involving the election of delegates to the Baltimore convention.

In 1908 he was elected to Congress from the Twenty-sixth Pennsylvania District and served three terms. Palmer was the author of the original Federal child labor law which was recently knocked out by the Supreme Court.

In 1914 he was Democratic nominee for the United States Senate from Pennsylvania, but was defeated by Senator Penrose. President Wilson in 1915 appointed him a judge of the United States Court of Claims, but Palmer declined the appointment. In the spring of 1918 he was offered an appointment by Gov. Brumbaugh, of Pennsylvania Supreme Court, but refused to leave his war work.

As alien property custodian his work has been remarkably successful, and in the administration of this office he has won praise even from his bitterest political enemies.

Your Order--Means Employment--For Every Man

We want to reinstate every former employe the very day he reports for duty. To provide this employment without discharging an equal number of other faithful employes who have entered our service within the past year means increasing our present volume of business.

After months of careful preparation we have secured the necessary supply of milk and for the first time in more than a year we are in a position where it is possible for us to

Invite Additional Business

The only restrictions being that you live within our delivery zone and that the quantity of milk or cream desired be sufficient to justify the cost of delivery.

The number of additional customers whom we can serve at once is necessarily limited, but this limit will be extended just as rapidly as the boys report for reinstatement.
